Located on Chicago's famed Michigan Avenue, the Chicago Athletic Association hotel was originally an elite men's social and sporting club built in 1893. Following the club's closure, the building was restored and opened its doors as a luxury boutique hotel. Sporting 240 rooms, interiors were designed by Roman & Williams, mixing original architectural details with modern nods to the building's past.

When hour 16 rolls around on set, you can't hire someone who's going to start yelling at the PA and chuck a chair because "creative differences". You need someone you get along with, and I strive to build a working relationship with everyone I collaborate with. The Director and DP relationship will make or break the project, and I work endlessly to make the production happen on time and under budget.

We're creating art.

I graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in screenwriting, cinema, and creative writing. So I am versed in editing, lighting, sound, camera crew work, wiring, and all of that good cinema stuff. I would be very willing to step onto a crew at any point cause although I learned a lot I'm eager to learn more and help in any way I can.

I have experience producing in all arenas, based in LA and Chicago but working all over the world. I am VERY well versed in behind the scenes coverage & ready to take on projects from a day to a year.

And if you need a stage manager, I do that too because I enjoy it.

I am trained in Covid-19 set safety & contact tracing, and have used those skills on three seasons of television and streaming series', an indie feature film and for an agency in the lead-up to the 2022 midterm elections.

Cinema is the embodiment of a universal embrace of all forms that is fine art. The very spectacle of art allows us for self-examination. Cinema represents an exploration into the human condition. This is the very goal of my expression—the discovery of ourselves as people and a society and to express beliefs and ask questions. This is rooted from character, visual design, the deconstruction of film history and composition.

When hour 16 rolls around on set, you can't hire someone who's going to start yelling at the PA and chuck a chair because "creative differences". You need someone you get along with, and I strive to build a working relationship with everyone I collaborate with. The Director and DP relationship will make or break the project, and I work endlessly to make the production happen on time and under budget.

That should be a great experience for every crew member.

Hi! My name's Thomas Price, I am a freelancer based out of Chicago, Illinois. I am hoping to get more involved in production here in Chicago. My long-term goal in this industry is to become a camera operator. Most of my experience lies in the Camera Department and being a PA. I hope to build on my past experiences and learn as much as possible. If you need an extra hand on set I would love to help out!
